Diversity Education and Programs

Welcome to the Office of Diversity Education and Programs at the University of Baltimore, where we promote an appreciation for diversity among our students, faculty and staff, and encourage an attitude that celebrates diversity and academic excellence.

The University strives to actively support the creation of a community that is reflective of society's diverse racial, ethnic, gender, sexual orientation, class, age, religion, and ability groups. Culturally-focused training, education programs, resources, and services equip the university community with the skills necessary to thrive within an increasingly global society.

The following programs are offered by the Office of Diversity Education and Programs:

- Welcome Reception for Multi-ethnic Students
- Holidays Around the World Celebration
- Cultural Awareness Month Programming
- Diversity and Leadership Training for Students, Faculty, Staff, and Alumni
- Cultural Connections Series
