

7. Mandatory Residence Hall and Wing Meetings

Residents are required to attend Mandatory Residence Hall and Wing meetings. Those who miss the meetings are subject to disciplinary action by the Judicial Board or Director of Residence Life.

8. Room Decorations

The following room decorations are not allowed in the residence halls:

- a) Pornographic (any depiction of nude private body parts) or other offensive materials may not be displayed.
- b) Stick on decals may not be placed on doors, walls, or furniture.
- c) Incense, candles, or oil lamps are not allowed in the residence halls (wax sculptures that do not have wicks are allowed). All incense, candles, etc. will be confiscated and turned in to the involved hall director.
- d) You may not paint your room. No nails, tacks, or screws may be used in rooms. No transparent tape or any picture hangers may be used that will remove the paint from the walls.
- e) Window coverings are provided for each room and they are the only window coverings to be visible from the outside (i.e. mini-blinds, aluminum foil, different curtains, Christmas lights).
- f) Carpet may be placed on the floor, but carpet tape cannot be used to hold the carpet down.

9. Door Decorations

Door decorations are limited to the cork bulletin board on the door, only. These are to be decorative in nature and may be covered with paper or material.

10. Foul Language

The use of foul language is in poor taste and not acceptable in the residence halls or on campus.

11. Plants

You may keep plants, but be careful not to water spot furniture or floors.

12. Pets

- a) Residents are permitted to keep fish that are in a ten (10) gallon tank or smaller.
- b) Residents are prohibited from keeping any pets that do not meet the established regulations established above. NO EXCEPTIONS
