INTRODUCTION

The Compass for 2004-2005 is the student handbook for Cornell College for the year. It contains information about resources on campus, activities, organizations, policies, and rules and regulation. It is each Cornell student's responsibility to know, understand and follow the policies and procedures explained in this student handbook. Students are also responsible for the behavior and actions of their guests.

The Compass is prepared for publication by the Dean of Students Office. If further explanation is needed, contact the Dean of Students Office.
