

ADVERTISING

Students, student organizations, or non-CSU individuals, businesses or organizations, may advertise products or events on designated residence hall bulletin boards or at locations for students to pick-up information. Those wishing to display advertisements, other than residents of the hall where the advertising is to occur or Residence life staff members, must first obtain a permit to do so from the Residence Life Office, Room 111, Palmer Center. Residence Life staff will direct the posting or displaying of the advertisements. Advertising by those other than residents or staff members that has not been permitted or is posted in non-designated areas will be taken down and discarded. Advertising should avoid the use of obscene language and may not promote illegal behavior, including the underage use of alcohol or illegal drug use.

HARASSMENT AND HATE INCIDENTS

Colorado State University reaffirms its intention to create and maintain a work and study environment for faculty, staff, and students that is fair, humane, and responsible, an environment that supports, nurtures and rewards people on the basis of such relevant conditions as ability, performance, dedication, and diligence.

The Student Code of Conduct prohibits the harassment of any member of the University community, meaning verbal or physical harassment, on the basis of gender, race, color, national origin, sexual orientation, age, religion, or physical disability. The Code also prohibits abusive conduct, including physical abuse, verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, stalking, coercion, and/or other conduct which threatens or endangers the physical or psychological health, safety, or welfare of one's self, another individual or a group of individuals. Students should refer to the General Catalog and/or the webpage of the CSU Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity ("OEOD") for more information about the University's Sexual Harassment Policy and other harassment policies, and the procedures for bringing a complaint. The University encourages anyone who may experience harassment to report such incidents to the OEOD or other University administrators.
