FREE SPEECH AREA GUIDELINES

1. All persons wishing to use any of the College's Free Speech Areas shall, before doing so, identify themselves to the College Security Office. These persons shall present to the personnel on duty their state-issued photo identification, a brief written statement of the general content of the statements they will be making and, if any materials are to be distributed, a copy of each piece.
2. Only those written materials of which Security has received a copy may be distributed. Such distribution shall take place only within the geographical limits of the Free Speech Areas. Prior to leaving the Area for the day, the user(s) must retrieve and remove or properly dispose of their printed materials that have been improperly discarded in or around the Area.
3. Persons may use the Free Speech Areas to collect signatures on proposed ballot measures or other petitions and to register voters. No person shall use these Areas for the solicitation of funds by any means, including sales and donations, unless he or she is representing an organization registered with the California Secretary of State as a nonprofit corporation or is a member of a recognized Citrus College club or organization. Any person(s) engaged in a for-profit endeavor may arrange to have a presence on campus through the bookstore supervisor subject to the existing policies of the bookstore.
4. No means of amplification, electronic or otherwise, shall be used in the Free Speech Areas
5. Persons using the Free Speech Areas shall not touch nor impede the progress of passersby and shall remain within the geographical limits of the Areas while engaged in the exercise of their expression.
6. Use of the Free Speech Areas shall be limited to the hours of 8:00 a.m. through 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

7. Violation of any part of the applicable College Policy and/or Regulations may result in the violator being removed from and/or being denied further access to the College, student discipline, civil and/or criminal prosecution.

8. In the event that any person(s) request the use of one of the Free Speech Areas when such usage would be disruptive to a College special event the Student Affairs Administrator may elect to assign said person(s) the use of an alternate Area.
