The University of Delaware has just become one of the most Orwellian campuses in America. Students in its residence halls are now being subjected to a re-education program that is actually dubbed - in the university's own tax-payer funded materials - as "treatment" for students who have incorrect attitudes and beliefs.

Delaware now requires nearly 7,000 students in its residence halls to adopt specific public university-approved (read: government-approved) views on issues ranging from race, to sexuality, to philosophy. The Foundation for Individual Rights in Education (see www.TheFire.org) is calling for the total dismantling of the program. Readers of this column should call (302-831-2111) or write president@udel.edu to Patrick Harker President of The University of Delaware asking him to do the same.

It is not at all uncommon for a university to establish official views and try to force them on students in the residence hall environment. Students living in the university housing complexes are often required to attend training sessions, floor meetings, and one-on-one meetings with their Resident Assistants (RAs).

Students walk past posters on the Columbia University campus where Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad will speak during his stay in New York September 24, 2007. Ahmadinejad met leaders of an anti-Zionist Jewish group on Monday at the start of a visit to New York for the U.N. General Assembly meeting that has sparked protests and anger. REUTERS/Lucas Jackson (UNITED STATES)

But, at Delaware, the RA who facilitates these meetings has already received his own training, including a "diversity facilitation training" session. There, he is taught that at "[a] racist is one who is both privileged and socialized on the basis of race by a white supremacist (racist) system. The term applies to all white people (i.e., people of European descent) living in the United States, regardless of class, gender, religion, culture or sexuality."

- Related Media: VIDEO: Hangman's Noose Found On Black Professor's Door At Columbia University VIDEO: Student Dies After On-campus Beating VIDEO: Cops Cleared for Using Taser on Student

The Delaware RA is also taught that the term "reverse racism" is created by whites to deny their privilege. An official Delaware training manual says that "those in denial use the term reverse racism to refer to hostile behavior by people of color toward whites, and to affirmative action policies, which allegedly give 'preferential treatment' to people of color over whites." Then, after defining the term "reverse racism" the manual claims that "there is no such thing as 'reverse racism.'" Later, it says the non-existent term "reverse racism" is an example of "racism."

Lewis Carroll would have been proud. The university also suggests that during one-on-one sessions with students, the RA should ask intrusive personal questions such as the following:

"When did you discover your sexual identity?" "When was the last time you felt oppressed?" "Who was oppressing you?" "How did it feel?" "Can you think of a time when someone was offended by what you said?" How did it make you feel?" "How do you think it made them feel?"

Students who express discomfort with the questioning often meet with disapproval from the RA, who often writes a report on the student and delivers it to a superior. One student was identified in a write-up as the "worst" one-on-one session stating that she was tired of "having diversity shoved down her throat."

According to the university materials, the goal of residence life education is for students in the university's residence halls to achieve certain "competencies" that include statements like: "Students will recognize that systemic oppression exists in our society," "Students will recognize the benefits of dismantling systems of oppression," and "Students will be able to utilize their knowledge of sustainability to change their daily habits and consumer mentality."

In other words, the student can become competent by becoming a Marxist. Fortunately, Delaware stops short of requiring the student to wear a "Hillary 2008" t-shirt.

But that may well change soon. Presently, students are actually pressured or even required to take

Nothing new about this

Back in the 1970s I was told by someone who was probably the grandmother of todays malleable blob of dough that if I refused to support certain social programs voluntarily, that *proves you have to be forced.*

The Marching Mommies who have kicked and screamed their way to forcible non-smoking and are currently trying to institute forcible elimination of peanuts, *unhealthy* drinks and Goodies (instituting Nazi-like searches and confiscations from your childs lunch box and bookbag), and mandatory birth control for 11 year olds are becoming drunk with power as they roll on unopposed. They have learned that reason and logic are too slow and that they are likely to learn something by engaging in them -- why not use the blunt object of screaming *MORBIDLY OBESE!* over and over and over and over and over and over and over, if it gets the result of forcing kids to eat only what you deem is good for them?

Remember, Orwell did not want only obedient little sheep. He wanted obedient little sheep who LOVED their chains. You can force a kid to learn the Catechism, but you cannot force a child to love the Lord. All you can do is terrify him or intimidate him into mouthing the words.

Let us hope that todays generation has the backbone to yell back that YOU ARE NOT THE BOSS OF ME.

President Harker:

It has finally come to pass; the idiots are running the asylum!

Professor Mike Adams, after describing the unconstitutional indoctrination of students at DU, and the "treatment" of those who resist continues:

President Harker must be made aware of the United States Supreme Court's decision in West Virginia State Board of Education v. Barnette (1943). Writing for the Court, Justice Robert H. Jackson declared, "If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein."

You and your Marxist cohorts need to wake up and smell the coffee. The Constitution trumps your petty attempts to further Nikita Khrushchev's aim of conquering us from within. Where do you come up with this total tripe?

As a retired serviceman, I consider that I am still bound by my oath to, "...protect and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic..." Well, Mr. Harker, you are a domestic enemy!!

"Actually, I've never looked for it. I've been too busy with real life. Have you figured yours out, yet?"

"When was the last time you felt oppressed?"

"How about, right now?"

"Who was oppressing you?"

"Well, there's nobody else here but you and me- and I'm not oppressing myself."

"How did it make you feel?"

"How does being an oppressor make you feel? Are you enjoying the power rush?"

Somehow, I doubt we'd get to the questions about offending people.

I am an alumnus of the U of D and although it was from the Ag College and a long time ago, I have stayed close to the University. Delaware is very small and it is easy to stay informed. Not only has Dr. Adams misconstrued the program, he is woefully uninformed of the true balance that exists there. The book "The Bell Curve" was published there and the author still teaches and continues her research trying to prove white racial superiority. The history department offers a class on Ronald Reagan that lionizes him. Many Christian student groups are active on campus and conservative groups have just as much clout as gay rights groups. It's true that UD doesn't have a Mike Adams, but on the other hand, we don't seem to have any of the problems that Mike runs into on a regular basis.

Oh yes, there is a type of brainwashing going on here; but it's being perpetrated by Mike on his readers. But please, don't let the truth get in the way of your fun. Go ahead and mindlessly disparage liberals and continue to fight a mythical cultural war.

If you are saying that what <http://www.thefire.org> and Mike Adams are saying, namely: "...The RAs who facilitate these meetings have received their own intensive training from the university, including a "diversity facilitation training" session at which RAs were taught, among other things, that "[a] racist is one who is both privileged and socialized on the basis of race by a white supremacist (racist) system. The term applies to all white people (i.e., people of European descent) living in the United States, regardless of class, gender, religion, culture or sexuality..." is NOT true, then please back that up with something more substantial than "True Balance" existing there because: , "...The book "The Bell Curve" was published there and the author still teaches and continues her research trying to prove white racial superiority. The history department offers a class on Ronald Reagan that lionizes him. Many Christian student groups are active on campus and conservative groups have just as much clout as gay rights groups..."

MikeR, if you call Mike Adam's unearthing the truth "brainwashing," and the comments here "mindlessly disparage liberals and continue to fight a mythical cultural war," then I say that UD was successful in it's "Treatment" of you!

Open your eyes man! Attempting to police thought is just plain wrong!

University of Delaware

This is frightening!

The 2007 Princeton Review gave the University of Delaware a very favorable review. My wife and I were planning including it in the list of schools our High School senior daughter would make application to attend in the fall. Forget that. I'm not going to send my money to have her poisoned by the very people I am paying to "educate" her..

This is the only way to stop this. Parents, don't send your children to Universities like this. Sadly, many Universities are inching the same direction.

They are gonna GET what's coming

Whites are getting really, really, really sick of the monstrous slander, and deliberate, systematic campaign of genocide being waged against us.

Do you think that my [above] assertion is outrageous? Study the history of the 20th Century. The Armenian Christians were WHITE. The millions and millions and millions and millions of Christian Rus, murdered by the Bolsheviks (who are the Race that engineered the slaughter of the Armenians, and are still behind most of the destruction of the West. They are NOT White, btw - though they pass themselves off as such). Now - White nations, and ONLY White nations, are being systematically flooded with hostile, backward, violent invading Non-Whites. Why? Whites are being forced to pay for the breeding and feeding of these colonizing aliens - their future killers - while decimating their own ability to perpetuate their own numbers. Whites are being murdered (Check out the Color of Crime, sometime) in astounding number, by the Black and Brown tools. Any White that realizes what is happening, right in front of their eyes, will be persecuted in every way possible - up to actual criminal prosecution.

I hear ya, my friend!

This is a constant fight I have with my mom. She is of the opinion that you MUST have a college education to get ahead in life. I don't believe in that. Colleges have become advance indoctrination centers.

I had a great time living on campus, regardless of the bad experiences. Of course, I went to Texas A&M, a more conservative campus. We were the 'Leggett Longnecks', and we were proud of the fact!

John Galt - The Revolution is HERE

Study the up-to-this-minute fate of White South Africans. Please recall that South Africa was created by Whites. There was no South Africa before Whites arrived there. There were only primitive Black tribes. South Africa was a nation of White minority rule. 40 years ago - the first heart transplant was performed by a White doctor. A Boer. And a very racially-aware man. He had NO illusions about the nature of the Blacks that lived in his land. Now - the doctors can't get basic equipment. The Black "leadership" does not work to help their own people - and never have. They use all resources to party with White French prostitutes, in Paris. There are only about 3 million Whites left in SA. The bright, moneyed ones have fled. The remainder are being driven out of jobs, and off their own land, and are living in absolute destitution. And thousands and thousands and thousands have been murdered. Of course. The murder of Whites, by Blacks, in SA (as well as everywhere else in the world), occurs on daily basis. South Africa is descending into the typical mindless morass of Black savagery, once again. Have any of you ever heard a word of this? You'd better start educating yourselves - their fate is a harbinger of yours.

Revolution Part III

Most of you Whites, here, are terribly "unaware" and "unawakened" - but some of you are not. Most of you would absolutely CRINGE at the concept of identifying as a member of a distinct and brilliant Race. You would never, simply never, dream of defending your self, and your Race - as a Race. Heavens forfend! Some-one might call you a ....shudder...cold sweat..."racist"!!! OH NO!!!! Nothing - not even violent death - is worth being called a "racist"!!! Well - isn't that true? Ken Tillery, the Zebra murder victims, Channon Christian and Christopher Newsom.....millions of others - all murdered because of their Race. ALL of them. Ken Tillery was ambushed - but all of the rest would be alive, and non-murdered - if they had not had their racial consciousness systematically excised from their limbic systems.....

Wake up now. NOW. The Darkies, and their Puppet Masters, hate you. THEY HATE YOU. They want what the White Race has created - because they can not create the same things - but they hate the fact that the astonishing, amazing, and singular social and material developments conceived of, and created by, Whites, only serves to starkly delineate their own inferiority. "White privilege" is simply White achievement. That's all.

I have stopped reading the Princeton Review and U.S. News college listings. They appear to be based on how many applications are turned away, and on how many profs are published. They don't tell you that the Nobel laureate will only be teaching two Ph.D. candidates, not your incoming freshman.

instead of re-education, our schools wouldn't be the laughing stock of the rest of the first world.

God forbid U of Delaware would be committed to expanding student minds and promoting high quality academic inquiry into important issues. No, instead they must force feed their "diversity" droll, limit the development of all their students, and in general be a low-bar bottomfeeding waste of taxpayer money.

The Finale

Non-Whites are systematically attacking and slaughtering Whites. And they are winning.

Whites are tottering on the verge of annihilation. Yesterday I wrote that Whites were 30% of the total global population 100 years ago. Now - we are 8%. The situation has not improved since yesterday.....

Now - Mike Adams finally writes about that which Awakened Whites have known for years. He doesn't go far enough, though. Not by half. He's on the right track, though. I'm certain, if he would stumble across my posts, he would abjure and disdain my words as "racist". (And he can go urinate all over himself. Internal traitors - deluded, demented "fair-minded" sound-asleep Whites are the very, very worst enemies of the White Race)I, obviously, couldn't care less. The Whites that survive this global attempt at genocide will be stronger, and Whiter, than ever. They will know who they are - and what they have endured. White identity, and existence, will be secured. In perpetuity. Time without end.

White Racial Identity is simply survival. John Galt - the revolution is HERE.

WHITE PRIDE WORLD WIDE.

In hoc signo vinces.

No, you are wrong, very wrong. I am all that I claim to be and I haven't lied. I am an alumnus, I am in close contact with the university and Delaware is a small state. The situation on campus as I described it is accurate. Perhaps you should educate yourself. I suggest you start with reading comprehension. My main point is that mike has misconstrued the program. For that matter, so has thefire.org. they offer very little on the program other than some primary documentation. The actually interaction of the students themselves is not observed or recorded. So they don't really have an actual depiction. That is the definition of misconstrued. As to the document (and phil_redeploy this is for you too) it does not say that all whites are racists. It says that all whites have the potential to be racists. Two definitions later it offers a description of non-racists whites. If the first definition was as you say it is then the second one would not be possible. Here again, the definition of misconstrued.

Phil_redeploy: If you want proof of Mike brainwashing someone, observe imagasser. That person is making a decision on hearsay.

Don't get me wrong, this university has it's problems. Unlike MikeR, we former students (everyone else has alumni) tend to try to fix what goes wrong. Our current fight is with the Office of Diversity. They want to institute 'quotas' for the dorms based on race. Can you IMAGINE?

MikeR is the epitome of today's liberal. Using the old magician's misdirection trick. He totally ignores the subject matter at hand (forced indoctrination at the dorm) and shows you a professor(a choice, not force) and a course(a choice, not force). Not only that, then he gives you heresay about the popularity of student groups, even though he graduated "a long time ago".

There was a time that a university was a place of higher learning. Now, sadly, most are only businesses raking in money and putting out an inferior product. If Mattel or Colgate did this, they would be out of business by now.

Letter to Emory Professor

Here's a letter I wrote to the Emory President after the fiasco with the Horowitz speech last week....

"Dear Mr. Wagner,

I am the parent of 3 high school students and we are starting our college search. Your University was of interest because it fit in with my kids academic qualifications, but I am crossing it off the list due to the recent incident with the Horowitz speech. If you can't control a small crowd during a speech, then I can only wonder how poorly will you control my kid's safety on campus?

In addition, you even had two administrators at the event, a vice-provost and a vice president and you still couldn't control the crowd to let the man speak! I've seen the video of the event. I also have to wonder if the seemingly tacit approval (by lack of any crowd control) of the crowd antics towards a conservative speaker will mean that my child will not get a diversified education and will instead get a left-wing indoctrination. If that's the case, then I'll spend my $45,000 a year elsewhere. I don't buy shoddy merchandise.

I just read the PDF file of the Residence Hall training manual referenced. It is chilling! What the U of D is trying to do is absolutely no different than what the Veitcong did to Vietnamese with incorrect thoughts by sending them to re-education camps. Ditto the Chinese, Russians and so on. We must not allow this to stand.

Should Federal dollars continue to go to U of D? I think not.
