Demonstration Policy

Students are free to voice dissent and to demonstrate in an orderly and peaceful manner. Picketing or demonstrating must not interfere with the normal flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic or with the entrances to buildings and must not interfere with the normal functioning of the University. Sticks, or other objects that may prove to be dangerous in a crowd, are not permitted for use in support of signs or banners for other purposes. Rules for the Maintenance of Public Order may be used if necessary.

Individuals wishing to organize a demonstration on campus should follow the normal space reservation procedures which can be found by visiting r25.binghamton.edu.
