

Student Rights & Responsibilities

You have specific rights and responsibilities as a member of the Montana Tech campus community.

These include the:

- 1. Right to a safe and secure living environment. You have a right to a secure and safe physical and social environment.
- 2. Responsibility for a safe environment. You have the responsibility to report unsafe conditions or dangerous behavior to an RA or to the Office of Residence Life.
- 3. Right to be free from fear, intimidation, and physical or emotional harm. You have the right to feel safe from all harm. Report any threatening behavior to an RA or the Office of Residence Life.
- 4. Right to an environment free from illegal drugs. You have the right to an environment free from the presence of illegal drugs. Illegal drug use or possession can be confidentially reported to an RA or to the Office of Residence Life.
- 5. Right and responsibility to socially appropriate behavior. You have the right to the enforcement of social norms, such as reasonably quiet and socially appropriate behavior. You are responsible for your own behavior and for setting personal boundaries for unacceptable behaviors by others.
- 6. Right to an optimum learning and social environment. You have the right to an interesting, healthy, social, and intellectual environment.

7. Right to a clean living environment.

8. Right to petition for redress of grievances.

9. Right to explore, define, and celebrate yourself, your community, and your time on-campus.

In Case of Emergency:

Please consult the Montana Tech Student Handbook for complete information about what to do if you need emergency help, security, or want to report any criminal actions.

You have the right to feel safe anywhere on campus, and if you or someone you know feels threatened or has been assaulted, please call 911 immediately.

If you wish to seek alternate living arrangements due to the threat of an assault or a completed assault, please report the incident to the Dean of Students and/or the Director of Residence Life to find out what options are available.
